I am a Software Developer and a consultant, with five (8) years of working experience majoring in web and mobile applications building blocks using proficient tools which are efficiently result-oriented, thereby yielding more positivity through all phases of design and implementation of software products, but most importantly keeping the system up-to-date with current releases of its modules and configurations, thereby making the software product an independent system of systems.

I have developed and managed software projects with the following development tools and languages

- React

Native, ReactJS, Java, Android, Kotlin, NodeJS, PHP, JavaScript, Firebase, C, C++, AWS, Git, MongoDB, MySQL, Bitbucket, Figma, Adobe XD, Android Studio, Visual Studio etc. My life's professional work pipeline cannot be simply summarized. Hoping to work with you.
